

A Step Ahead to Innovate for Our Future...

To Manage Water Leak Detection Requests for Houses and Companies

In an endeavor to organize Environment, Water, and Agriculture Sector, and increase the service quality, handle customers' complaints efficiently and provide healthy environment for investors, we have developed Kashf App, which allows Qualified Leak Detection Service Providers, by the National Water Efficiency and Conservation Center, to offer leak detection services for customers, whether for houses or companies.

Target Audience

Leak Detection
Service Providers

Individuals

Kashf Features

Qualified Companies Access to all the
qualified leak detection
service providers

Easy Access
By creating a platform that gathers all approved leak
detection service companies

High Trust
Rating the service
by customers

Integrated Platform Integrating with the National Water Efficiency
and Conservation Center

Competitive
Open Market
Between companies
in terms of quality
and prices

Kashf Services

For the Service Provider

- Maintenance Reports
- Quotations of Maintenance Work
- Quotations of Leak Detection

For End Users

- E-payment by Mada
- Searching & Booking Appointments
- Viewing Maintenance Reports
- Qualified Leak Detection Companies

Service gateway

Kashf is an app that allows customers to receive the best Water Leak Detection services from companies highly qualified by the National Water Efficiency and Conservation Center

kashf.elm.sa