

Mustamir Platform

Based on achieving the highest standards of quality and satisfaction in raising the efficiency of continuous professional development practices...

"Mustamir" is a digital platform aims to automate the procedures and operations of the continuous professional department of the Saudi Commission for Health Specialties, and to empower and monitor the concerned authorities through an integrated systems.

The platform enables more than 280 providers of continuous professional development activities in:

Organizations

Universities

Hospitals

Governmental and
Private Training
Centers

Specialized
Websites

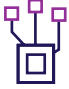

From obtaining its accreditations in an easy way for a number of main and subsidiary services, which serve the vision and mission of the Commission by qualifying the health practitioner to be in line with his profession field, and to bring the professional practice to a high and safe level that ensures the patient's safety

Platform Services

- ◆ Compliance management and quality control
- ◆ Accreditation of the entities and activities they provide
- ◆ Licenses for continuous professional development activities providers
- ◆ Accreditation of e-learning activities
- ◆ Licenses of training centers
- ◆ Accreditation of training hours

Platform Features

 Automating continuous professional development services

 Facilitating the process of providing services to beneficiaries

 Automating hours of activities for practitioners

 Improving procedures and clarifying standards

 Providing the activities approved in learning hours by the Saudi Commission for Health Specialties

 Verifying data electronically

Additional Features

◆ Booking conferences

◆ Managing activities

◆ E-payment services