

The Connection Point...

In an effort to organize and manage land transportation activities, Wasl platform enables the Transport General Authority and other relevant stakeholders to control and monitor land transport operations, like taxis, trucks and e-freight agents.

Target Audience

Government
Organizations

Transport Sector
Companies

Transport
Establishments

Tracking Services
Providers

Wasl Services

Wasl Vehicle Tracking

to verify drivers and vehicles operating in land transport activities, track their locations and status to systemize transport operations in an endeavor to boost quality and ensure safety and security.

Wasl Ridesharing

to verify drivers and active vehicles in ridesharing apps. The service monitors and tracks each trip data to systemize transport operations in an endeavor to boost quality and ensure safety and security.

This service is only provided for organizations.

Features

Eliminating ineligible companies

Organizing land transport and improve performance

Real-time tracking of transport activities

Verifying the legal status of the vehicles and drivers

Advance competition to uncover better customer service

Additional Features

Monitor trucks weight so not to exceed the weight limit

Preserving and protecting the infrastructure

Raising the level of safety and security

Preserve stakeholders' rights in the market

Providing high-tech reports and statistics

Packages

Subscribe to Your Suitable Package

Wasl Tracking

Technical Support for Tracking Service Provider

15,000

SR yearly

Wasl Ridesharing

Validate and register driver, vehicle and trip in Wasl Platform

0.5

SR per trip

FAQs

How to subscribe and link with Wasl platform?

- First, the establishment should contact the Transport General Authority, and then the Authority will review the initial requirements.
- Advise the establishment to contact Elm to proceed with the procedures of linking to the platform and subscribing.

Which land transport establishments are required to be linked with Wasl platform?

- To be informed with the latest regulations, please visit Transport General Authority website: <http://www.tga.gov.sa>